4 c. Review of Fiscal Year 2022 Budget	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Members of the committee, as well as, other alderman attending reviewed the proposed FY 22 budget as presented by Administrator Blackert and the respective Department Heads. Discussion was held to the point that last year when reviewing the budget there were concerns of anticipating decreased revenue due to COVID and the closures or reduction in services of many businesses. The revenues which have been received indicate that, did not happen. Overall, our budget looks good considering the past year and COVID implications. Capital Projects are down slightly in number; however, we are anticipating two (2) major road projects if funding all goes well. Overall, the budget (revenues) for all funds is $29,460,553.82, (expenditures) $29,460,111.45 leaving a (surplus) of $442.37. Motion: Palmer, seconded: Babel to approve the budget as presented and forward to the Council for action. Vote unanimous, motion carried. 	Forward FY 22 Budget to Council for April 6 th Council Meeting 1 st Reading.
