Audience request:

Many members from Millwrights local 2158, stood and spoke in favor of keeping Aim's Mechanical as the contractor for the Hydroelectric maintenance. If the council were to go with the contractor HCMS, there would be six (6) local jobs lost along with affecting many others. Aims Mechanical was a lower bid of $70,000.00 and questions were raised as to why the City Council would want to go with an out of state company.
Mayor Klecker closed audience request time.

Before moving to a motion City Attorney stated that a 2/3rds vote will be needed.

A motion was made by Alderman Snow and seconded by Alderman Wangelin to do a waiver of competitive bids for the contract for the Hydroelectric generation facility maintenance.

Vote 6 aye, 2 nays (Babel and Devers), motion carried. Alderwoman McKanna suggested Alderwoman Devers recuse herself from voting.

A motion was made by Alderman Snow and seconded by Alderman Wangelin to approve the recommendation from the Utility Department to award HCMS, W7021 State Road 152, Wautoma, WI 54982 the bid for the Hydroelectric generation facility maintenance.

Mayor Kleckler - alderman have the figures in hand, Aims Mechanical is the lower bidder.
HCMS is not going to hire in state workers.
Discussion – had by council members.

Vote 4 aye, 4 nays (Babel, Dowd, Devers, Doane) motion did not carry. Alderwoman McKanna suggested Alderwoman Devers recuse herself from voting.
